Nobel Awards For 1952-53 Announced

OSLO, Norway (AP)—The Nobel Peace Prize for 1953 was awarded Friday night to Gen. George C. Marshall, U.S. soldier-statesman who gave his name to the Marshall Plan.

At the same time the prize for 1952, previously withheld, was awarded to Dr. Albert Schweitzer, Alsatian missionary-philosopher.

The Norwegian Nobel Institute, a five-member board, announced the selections. In keeping with tradition, it gave no explanations.

Marshall, 72, was convalescing from a flu attack at his winter home in Pinehurst, N. C., when he got the news. "This award is a great distinction and honor for which I am deeply grateful," he said.

Instrumental in setting up a 17 billion dollar aid program for the war-shattered economy of Europe, Marshall is to receive a prize of 175,292 Swedish kronor ($33,840) from the funds set up under the will of Alfred Nobel, inventor of dynamite.

(In Washington, tax officials said the prize would be exempt from U. S. income taxes under a ruling made in 1940.)

Schweitzer, 78, is to get 171,570 kronor (about $33,200). Fluctuations in the funds' earnings account for the difference.

Nobel's will specified that the peace prize should go to the candidate "who has worked the most or best for promoting brotherhood among people, and for the abolition or reduction of the standing armies, and for the establishment and spread of peace congresses."

Marshall won world renown as the U. S. chief of staff in World War II. He was called from retirement three times in the following five years.

Marshall is the 12th American to win the peace prize since the first was awarded in 1901. The last previous American winner (1950) was Dr. Ralph Bunche, grandson of a Negro slave who, as a United Nations mediator, brought about a truce between the Arabs and the Jews in the Palestine war.

Schweitzer is a twinkling-eyed, white-moustached man long renowned as a medical missionary, musician, philosopher and doctor. He enjoyed a wide reputation when he went into the African jungles 40 years ago to serve humanity. And his wife established a hospital at Lambaré, in French Equatorial Africa.

Not Guilty Is
Plea in Store
Holdup Try

A West Virginian, who was arrested after a hold-up attempt at Strasheim's Liquor Store at 140½ So. 11th, pleaded not guilty Friday in Lancaster County Court to a charge of robbery.

Alvie Taylor, 30, who gave his address as 913 O. was charged with putting Arnold Strasheim, store owner, in fear for his life to obtain $415 from the store owner.

Taylor allegedly faked a weapon in his coat pocket to force Strasheim to hand over the money from the cash register, according to Strasheim's account.

The would-be robber directed Strasheim to go with him to the door, where the quick-thinking operator was able to step back and grapple with the man.

Two passersby aided Strasheim to subdue and hold the man until police arrived.

Taylor is being held at the County Jail under $5,000 bond pending preliminary hearing set for Nov. 7.

Deputy Co. Atty. Elmer Scheele recommended $5,000 bond for the reason that the defendant had only been in Lincoln three weeks.

Glenn E. Buis Injured In County Road Wreck

Glenn E. Buis, 17, of Fifth, was hospitalized at St. Elizabeth Hospital after being thrown from his car at a country road intersection crash just north of Hickman.

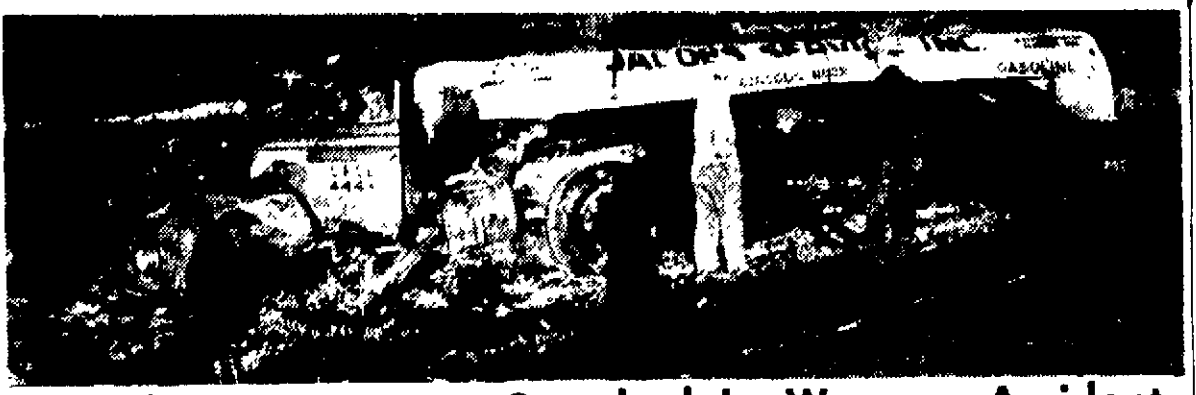

The Star incorrectly identified the injured boy as Roger D. McGinnis, 15, of Hickman, who was the driver of the other car involved in the accident. McGinnis suffered minor lacerations.

Buis, whose car overturned, was described as being in only fair condition.

The open house will be held at the Kansas University Alumni Club of Lincoln. Dr. Richard Garlinghouse is president of the group.

Loaded Gas Transport Smashed In Wymore Accident

The driver of this Jacobs Service Inc. of Lincoln fuel transport escaped with only minor injuries early Friday when the left front wheel of the truck came off two miles south of Wymore on U. S. 77. Driver Eddy Anderson of Blue Rapids, Kan., was taken to a Beatrice hospital. The huge tanker, loaded with nearly 5,000 gallons of diesel fuel, bounced crazily for more than 400 feet, crushing the tractor and damaging the trailer before coming to rest in a ditch. Sheriff Ned Maxwell of Gage County investigated the accident. The Wymore Fire Department was called to flush the dangerous oil from the highway. (Star Staff Photo by Bill Hines.)

Aurora Sheriff's Helpfulness Changes Man's Whole Future

AURORA, Neb. — Seventeen years ago Sheriff Jack Andrews picked up a couple of "hobos," one of them an 11-year-old boy who had run away from his home in Virginia.

The sheriff contacted the boy's parents. They wanted him to come home. They sent him a railroad ticket but no money. The boy was broke, and three days on a train without food can be a long time—especially for a kid.

Sheriff Andrews dug into his billfold and gave the boy enough money so he could have sandwiches and milk on the way home.

This week the boy—now a man—came back to Aurora. He was en route to South Dakota on Highway 81 but drove out of his way from York to Aurora to visit the sheriff he hadn't seen in 17 years.

"I've wanted for years," the man said, "to tell you how you changed a whole life when you sent a foolish kid back home in 1936. And I want you to know how much I appreciate the money that kept me from getting hungry."

OPPD Purchases
Sidles Property

OMAHA (AP)—The Omaha Public Power District purchased the Sidles Co. properties at 19th and Howard Sts. in downtown Omaha for $581,000. The Sidles firm will build new facilities but the site has not been selected.

OPPD plans to remodel the building and annex for its district headquarters. Cost of the remodeling program is estimated at $600,000.

The four-story building and two-story annex will give OPPD a gross of 90,000 square feet. When remodeling is complete, a net of 70,000 square feet will be available for office space.

Survivors include widow, Ruth, and a daughter, Frances. The body will be forwarded to Renstrom's hometown of Bertrand, Neb., for services and burial.

Son, Wife Named In Westover Will

Under terms of the will of Richard V. Westover filed in Lancaster County Court, the named beneficiaries are his widow, Stella K. Westover, and son, R. Van Westover.

The son was bequeathed a Cherry County ranch with its personal property eight miles south of Woodlake and his father's one-half interest in certain patents, trademarks, and devices held jointly with Leo Soukup, a former business associate.

Mrs. Westover will receive the residence at 1211 So. 48th and the residue of the estate.

Mr. Westover, who died Oct. 3, was before his retirement in 1946, associated with Soukup in the operation of Modern Cleaners for 27 years. He had invented several dry cleaning devices.

Dr. Hartley's
Innocence Proclaimed

LA CROSSE, Wis. (AP)—District Attorney John Bosshard, in unusual action Friday, issued a statement proclaiming the innocence of Dr. Hartley in the disappearance of his 15-year-old daughter, Evelyn, from a baby-sitting job a week ago. Dr. Hartley is a former Peru, Neb., resident.

Suspicion in the Evelyn Hartley case until the responsible parties are brought to justice," Bosshard declared, "Dr. Hartley asked to take a lie detector test at the state crime laboratory."

"Charles Wilson (crime laboratory director) reports to me that the lie detector, without equivocation, clears Dr. Hartley of any participation in the offense under investigation."

La Crosse police Friday picked up a 21-year-old local man in connection with a reported rape and questioned him about the Hartley case.

Bosshard said Friday night the man claimed he was with a male friend last Saturday night when Evelyn vanished. Bosshard said the man was being held on an open charge pending a check of his alibi.

The district attorney said the man was picked up on complaint of a 15-year-old girl who said he raped her Oct. 20.

The district attorney said reports of bloodstains on the lawn of the residence of Viggo Rasmussen, where Evelyn was baby-sitting, was type A human blood.

He added that Evelyn had type A blood.

Bosshard went on to say that blood found on the basement wall window of a neighbor's house was also type A human blood.

Dean Parley Plea Fails

PANMUNJOM (Saturday) (AP)—The Communists today for the second time turned down U.S. Ambassador Arthur Dean's plea to break the deadlock over seating neutral nations at the Korean peace conference.

The Reds said Dean's proposal to take up immediately and before anything else the matter of time and place for the conference was "a scheme or pretext to avoid discussion of composition."

The Communists want to settle the composition of the conference—the participation of neutral nations—before discussing time and place.

The negotiators agreed, despite the continuing deadlock, to meet again on Monday for a seventh session.

Kidnapers Indicted

KANSAS CITY (AP)—A Federal Grand Jury Friday indicted Carl Austin Hall and Mrs. Bonnie Heady for the kidnaping of little Bobby Greenlease who was slain by his abductors last Sept. 28.

The federal kidnaping law makes possible a death penalty for Hall, a 34-year-old ex-convict charged with shooting the six-year-old boy to death, and for his accomplice, a 41-year-old divorcee, who duped the nuns of Bobby's private school into releasing him.

Chute Record Set

BAKERSFIELD, Calif. (INS)—An intrepid 29-year-old housewife, who had made only one previous parachute jump, apparently set a new U.S. women's free-fall record Friday when she leaped from 25,500 feet and fell an estimated 21,000 feet before her chute opened.

Mrs. Clara Pichardo Myers, a native of the Dominican Republic, made the jump in an effort to beat the unofficial U.S. women's parachute record of 21,000 feet with a 19,000-foot free-fall set by Mrs. Viga Roth in New York state 23 years ago.

Jet Pilot Killed

BEMIDJI, Minn. (INS)—An air Force F-80 Shooting Star jet crashed and exploded Friday five miles west of Bemidji, Minn., killing the pilot.

The pilot was identified as 2nd Lt. Orville P. Halstengard, 23, of Gary, Minn. He was attached to the 11th Fighter Interceptor Squadron of the 515 Air Defense Group stationed in Duluth.

Everybody's Puzzled

MUSKOGEE, Mich. (AP)—San Piesada's stolen cash register showed up Friday. A group of schoolgirls found it in a clump of bushes. It was stolen two weeks from Sam's fruit market. But Sam wasn't alarmed. It was empty at the time. When found, it contained $1.10. Sam can't figure it out. Neither can police.

The LUTHERAN CHURCHES of LINCOLN

REAFFIRM

The Principles of the Reformation

The three great principles which gave birth to the Protestant Reformation were: The Bible Alone, Grace Alone, and Faith Alone. Today, after 400 years, these three principles are still the cornerstone of Bible Christianity.

The Bible Alone! Not human reason, not philosophy, not tradition, not the decisions of the Fathers or the opinions of church councils—but the clear words of the Bible, and these alone, are the final authority in all matters of Christian faith and life.

Grace Alone! It was inevitable that the Church, basing its message solely upon the Bible, should rediscover the meaning of "saving grace"—namely, the unmerited love of God revealed through Jesus Christ—and that it should teach salvation alone by such grace. Rom. 3:20-24; 11:6; Eph. 2:5-9.

Faith Alone! Since salvation is a free gift of the unmerited grace of God, purchased by the atonement of the Savior, it can be accepted in no other way than by faith.

Justification by faith alone—faith in the redemption purchased by Christ—has always been the cardinal doctrine of evangelical Christianity. It is the central theme of the whole Bible, finding its clearest expression in the Books of the New Testament. John 3:16; Acts 16:30, 31; Rom. 3:28.

Teachers Hear Far East Talk At Final Session

The problems, needs and motivating forces of the Far East were presented by Mrs. Marguerite Harmon Bro to an attentive audience of educators attending the closing general sessions of the Nebraska State Education Association convention in Lincoln.

The meeting ended with a final registration of 3,140. The closing sessions featured the address by Mrs. Bro, the introduction of new officers and an address by Sydney H. Montague on "Adventures in Happy Living."

Democracy, said Mrs. Bro, must move back into southeast Asia and match the Communists on their own highest service level. To do that she said, means that education and moral personnel must be sent into Asia.

Mrs. Bro also stressed the importance of United States and United Nations aid to foreign countries. The psychological effect, she said, is of extreme importance.

E. D. Humann of Aurora, newly-elected president of District 1, and his fellow officers were introduced at the Friday morning meeting. Other officers are: Harold Reed, Hebron vice president; Irma Warta, University of Nebraska extension division, secretary; and H. E. Couch, Executive, treasurer.

Executive council members are Evelyn Ripa of Wilber and M. L. Christensen of Geneva.

Dr. Arner L. Burnham who is retiring as executive secretary of the NSEA spoke briefly to the teachers in a recognition ceremony for outgoing officers Friday.

Officers have been elected by several divisional and sectional groups of District 1 of the NSEA. Those elected during the two-day district convention include:

Administration:
Carl E. Wink, Seward chairman
Business Education:
Phyllis Anderson, Seward president
Audrey Shumard, Lincoln vice president
Mrs. James Thomas, Fairbury secretary

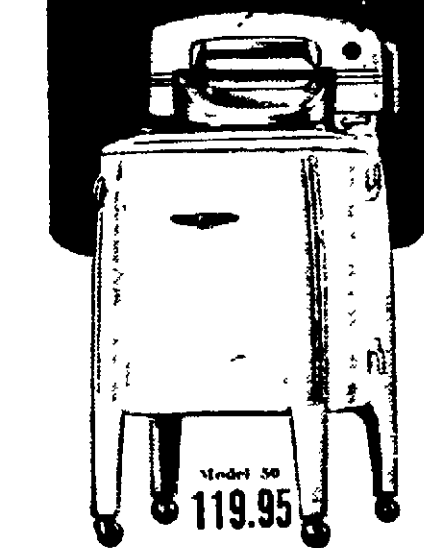

Department of Classroom Teachers:
Mrs. Helen Shaw, Lincoln director

Collections Down
October cigarette tax collections amounted to $349,494, H. L. Wickman, chief of income tax division announced Friday. The September collections were $402,325. Last year the October tax was $396,500. The big differences in monthly collections were explained by differences in wholesalers' meter settings from year to year.

"AT THE CROSSROADS OF LINCOLN"

A Day In Court

One of Nebraska's daily newspapers gives well-merited space to a single afternoon's session of the justice court. The roof was falling in on traffic violators and truck-overloaders in Dodge County, it reported.

And so it would seem.

Out of a total of 43 complaints, one short of a record 44 filed about a year previously, the presiding justice levied fines aggregating $1,040.

Frequently the public comes to the conclusion that the chief weakness in traffic regulations today arises from a lack of teeth in the traffic law. A fine, it will be admitted, is not always the answer to every traffic violation. There are instances when something more than a stiff fine seems to be called for. But if this is a fair sample of an afternoon's work, then it will have to be admitted that the present regulations governing traffic do contain a bite, and the only need is to apply it rigorously.

War Crimes Tribunal

Two wars of global scope, fought with the most modern, destructive weapons, have contributed scarlet chapters to the history of civilization since the turn of the present century.

Man, it seems, is a little bit further behind in the recognition of the ordinary decencies embodying principles of humanity than he was in 1900. That grisly record spread before readers of American newspapers in the Army report of atrocities committed largely by the North Koreans, aided by the Chinese, and abetted by the Russians, has shocked the American people.

It is no answer to say that war has always produced its atrocities. The cold-blooded slaughter of 6,113 helpless American prisoners of war, put to death in most cases under severe torture, and the evidence that at least 22,000 South Koreans were similarly treated is an appalling revelation. It is impossible to dismiss it as the work of irresponsible individuals. The evidence would indicate clearly that mass murder by the Communist forces was carried out methodically as a part of official Communist policy. Nor is it pertinent in fixing responsibility to note that 72 per cent of the murders were committed reputedly by North Korean Reds—the remainder by the Chinese.

In the Orient, where life is cheap, here is evidence of a primitive type of barbarism and savagery flourishing under Communism.

The Hague conventions which emerged during the early years of the present century at least sought to strip war of some of its more brutal aspects. The Hague conventions broke down under the pressures of the first global conflict. Nothing has been devised that has quite adequately taken their place in the field of international law.

We have the example at the close of the second world war of the war crimes tribunal. It reached out to take charge and to pass judgment, a sentence of death in some cases,

Of Men And Things

Quite generally the hard-working and frequently too-cynical newspapermen who cover Washington seem to agree that the honeymoon is over. They have reached the conclusion that President Eisenhower's widely publicized popularity is on the wane.

The President is facing up with the same experience that virtually every occupant of the White House has. With one or two exceptions, those years which for want of a better phrase are spoken of as "an era of good feeling" simply have either been short-lived or absent. There are times when Mr. Eisenhower appears naive to the hard-boiled, practical politicians within his own party. He talks about developing programs acceptable to all groups and classes. That is a laudable ambition but it is simply not in the works. It is impossible to please everybody. There are conflicting, widely divergent views as to what farm policy, for example, should include. The rancher from whose herds the cattle feeder draws is an individual of rugged views in conflict with the group which finishes beef for the American table. The Gallup Poll, for whatever dependence is to be placed upon it, revealed that Mr. Eisenhower had suffered a sharp drop in popularity. It pointed to the revolt in the rural areas as one of the chief contributing causes.

No doubt farm disappointment in Secretary of Agriculture Benson, and back of the secretary, the President, has had a lot to do with it. But to pick any single development—and to say that this is what has cost the President heavily—may be far from the facts. Shortly now Mr. Eisenhower will have been President a year—a fourth of the term to which he was elected. Certainly he took office with the plaudits and the warm-hearted well wishes of his people, a national hero idolized by millions. What people expected, tax cuts, a balanced budget, many things, have not taken place. For the first time those millions are beginning to see him as their President.

Mr. Eisenhower must proceed cautiously. He must rely to an extraordinary degree upon advice. His advisers may or may not be giving him the advice he should have—depending upon individual viewpoints. But it is not helping the President when he himself seems to change position from one week to another. Last week he was not doing to permit the office to become burdened with partisan politics on the local level, referring specifically to congressional campaigns and to state decisions. This week he tells the people he is deeply interested in a Republican party victory. If the public is a little bit confused by these rapid shifts, it is not strange. Basically, however, the chief obstacle confronting the President as the months unfold is the fact that he made too many promises—what people interpreted as promises—some of which are at least difficult if not impossible of fulfillment. The fault actually may have been with his speech-writers.

In any event, the people now are looking at Mr. Eisenhower as their President—perhaps unreasonable in their demands—but naturally appraising him on the basis of what has taken place and what they thought would take place under his leadership. If he has suffered a loss in popularity—then we are inclined to think that a great many developments contributed to it—and not simply any single one.

imprisonment in others, upon some of the Nazi leaders in the Nazi efforts to conquer the world. The demand already has been voiced by two members of Congress that all Communists responsible for the Korean War crimes shall be brought to justice. That reflects the reaction of the American people. Unfortunately it will be difficult if not impossible actually to enforce.

We have not in our possession those actually responsible or those higher up.

The only action open has been taken without delay. Here is one matter which can be brought before the United Nations which Communist spokesmen might well wish never confronted them.

Be A Tax Whiz

The popular but loose-handed way of treating the subject of income taxes in the American drawing room is to dispose of it by turning purple and roundly denouncing the government. That declares position and helps create the impression that one is a terrific money-maker. But the real winner is the one who has the figures at his fingertips. If you wish to be the envied man at the next social event, here is some help.

It was considered that 1950 was a top year when 53,060,098 filed returns representing a net tax of $13,374,922,000. But that record fell apart in a hurry in 1953 when 58,550,000 filed returns and the resultant tax revenue jumped to $33,250,000,000.

The same year the richest woman, unnamed, paid a tax of $1,309,000 out of an income of $6,413,000. But she wasn't typical. Nor did she and her kind turn in the biggest part of the taxes. That honor went to the low-income groups, largely because they were so numerous. An analysis of the 1950 returns revealed that the biggest paying group was that with incomes of $5,000 to $6,000. It produced 3,025,105 returns reporting a tax of $1,502,335,000. Running second was the $3,000 to $4,500 group which turned in 11,969,024 returns, reporting taxes of $3,255,836,000. Taxes paid by those with incomes of a million dollars or more were about equal to taxes paid by those with $2,000 to $2,250 who turned in 2,067,033 returns.

Editorial Of The Day

L'Affaire La Rosa

From The Minneapolis Tribune

We had thought to let the tumult and the shouting die before undertaking a calm appraisal of what has come to be known as L'affaire La Rosa. But the pressure of events will not be denied. It looks as though there'll be plenty of both tumult and shouting—as long as the press agents can keep it going.

Mind you, we're not saying The Whole Thing Was Just a Publicity Stunt. No, sir. That was a genuine stab in the back that Arthur administered to Julius the other day before countless millions who had just heard the boy sing.

In fact, it is a swell example of a special kind of stab in the back—the kind that pushes the victim upstairs.

It's not quite clear whether that's what Arthur had in mind. First he said the boy had lost his humility—wanted to go around being a person all the time. Then he explained that he really had just decided to release Julius so the lad could make more money elsewhere; said he was ready with a nice sendoff speech but didn't have time to deliver it because Julius dragged his last number.

Since that fateful day the issue, which was not pellucid to begin with, has become further clouded. Julius made his contribution: "I'm still a kid from Brooklyn." So far as we know, no one has come forward to dispute that statement. Arthur announced that he was prouder of Julius than of any other star he's developed. No one has disputed that, either.

The kid from Brooklyn appeared on another TV show Sunday night, at three times what Arthur paid him. And on Monday Arthur was a bit lugubrious on the subject of friends.

One more thing. Both Julius and Arthur flexed their indignation when Dorothy's name was brought into the discussion. They agreed she had nothing to do with it. Now Julius confesses he wants to marry the gal.

That has complications, too. We're beginning to see what Julius meant when he said, "All I want to do is to be happy, to come home from work and forget everything."

If the kid from Brooklyn can figure out how to do that, and still collect 2,600 bucks an appearance, Arthur has good reason to be proud of him.

Sen. Byrd's Aid To GOP Now Rises To Haunt Him

WASHINGTON — With the U. S. government bumping its head within half a billion dollars of the national debt ceiling, Secretary of the Treasury Humphrey has been toying with the idea of doing some book-juggling with social-security funds.

He has on the treasury books a total of $26,000,000,000 received from old-age pensions, unemployment insurance, all earmarked for payment as benefits to those who have paid it in. Actually this money is not in the federal Treasury, has been spent for other things. Therefore, it is entered on the Treasury books as a debt and automatically increases the national debt.

However, some Treasury experts argue that since the government owes itself this $26,000,000,000, it shouldn't count as a debt.

If Secretary Humphrey finds that such a ruling is sound, he can add $26,000,000,000 to the debt limit and won't have to worry about exceeding the national debt ceiling. Legal experts are being consulted. Upon their say-so a final decision will be made.

EMPTY DEPOSIT BOX

A group of distinguished lawyers gathered round a safe-deposit box in New York the other day ready to pounce upon what they thought was $1,900,000 of stolen money.

For more than a year they had been trying to get a court order to open up the safe-deposit box. In it, they told the court, was $1,900,000 of U. S. treasury bearer bills, purchased by Li Gen. P. T. Mow, former chief of the Chinese Air Mission in the United States, when he broke with Chiang and accused the Chiang government of squandering money in the U. S. A.

General Mow, now in a Mexican jail, was ordered released by Judge Antonio Fernandez Vera, despite which the Mexican government is still holding him. Links of pressure from the State Department.

Meanwhile, attorneys for Milbank, Tweed, Hope and Hadley; the Crisora Brothers; White and Case; Sherman, Sterling and Wright; Warren Woods; Alexander Slater; and Dr. Liang Chin-Cha, Chinese Vice Minister of Justice, armed to a court order, went to the Chemical Safety Deposit Company to open Gen. Mow's box.

Eagerly, they leaned forward as the box came open. Inside was no big stack of Treasury notes — not even one note. Inside was only one slip of paper, written in Chinese.

Vice Minister Liang was asked to translate. He did so. On the paper was written:

"Since Chiang Kai-Shek oppresses me, I will resist to the end."

Meanwhile, Gen. Mow languishes in a Mexican jail.

VIRGINIA EARTHQUAKE

Sen. Harry Byrd never dreamed, when he shared a Virginia hunting lodge with Attorney Ted Dalton, that Dalton would turn around and give him the political fright of his life.

That's what's happening today, however, in an amazing Virginia election in which the Republicans, for the first time since reconstruction days, are given a chance to elect a governor.

What happened was that the state referendum in Wisconsin last spring. It would have cut the representation of city residents through a formula which would consider area as well as population in fixing lines of senate districts.

The area plan of Wisconsin is similar to the proposal of a coalition of political party office-holders of both parties for Nebraska. The Wisconsin "area-cracks" suffered a severe blow when the proposal was appealed to the State Supreme Court.

The court ruled unanimously that to deprive city residents from having their rightful voice in the Legislature "violated a constitutional requirement that all citizens have an equal vote."

ARCH DONOVAN

In Step With The Sower

A peek into the Sower's mail bag:

Several recent letters have urged the Sower to point out the error in recent letters of Walter A. Hanthorn of Lushington, which state that the average taxpayer was taxed $145 because of the $19,400,000,000 appropriated by the last Legislature.

The figures were quoted as part of his argument in behalf of a bicameral Legislature and he insisted each county "would feel more closely and better represented if we could have a lower house of 100 members."

What the Lushington man failed to consider is that only about $19,000,000 comes from property tax funds and that the balance is from federal funds, fees for special services, sales taxes, etc.

Another correspondent calls attention to Dr. Claire E. Owens of Exeter, making similar generalizations of $200,000,000 in appropriations. No mention is made of the fact that a large part of this comes to the state as federal aid to the aged, highways and health services which were not considered in the last bicameral appropriations.

The Exeter doctor was also answered in another letter to the Sower over the complaint that nine members represent the western two-thirds of the state.

"Tell them to get more people out there in the hills if they want more senators in the Unicameral," our correspondent advised.

A number of other writers enclosed newspaper clippings and urged that the people of Nebraska "not be stampeded because a tax mess that has existed for more than 20 years has finally been brought to attention by enforcement of the constitution and law for the first time."

These clippings refer to a re-districting plan put across by Republicans, encouraged by Byrd last year to vote for Eisenhower, have taken him seriously and now propose electing other Republican officials. To do so they picked the best candidate in the state, Ted Dalton, close friend of Harry Flood Byrd.

The truth is that Dalton wasn't particularly enthusiastic about running. An intimate of Byrd's, he had enjoyed a cozy political cooperation with Virginia's No. 1 Dixiecrat by which he, as a Republican, got some of Byrd's support on the national front, while giving Byrd support on the local front.

But eager-beaver young Republicans who took seriously the organization of a Republican party below the Mason-Dixie line, pushed Dalton into the race. A distinguished lawyer, with an unimpeachable record, he was obviously the logical candidate for governor. And his campaign has gone so well that the Byrd machine for the first time in years has been scared.

Commented Tom Stanley, Byrd's Democratic candidate for governor: "You bet I'm worried."

Campaigning has been so tense that Byrd himself even passed out word that while he didn't mind having Democrats voting for Eisenhower, he did definitely object having Republicans organize in his state and he didn't want any Democrats voting Republican in the state election.

The Republican platform, incidentally, is just the opposite of Byrd's policies and almost identical with that of Byrd's Democratic but liberal opponent, Col. Francis Pickens Miller. The Republican propose such liberal policies as abolition of the poll tax, higher pay for teachers, and a policy of borrowing money if necessary to build state highways.

Observers say it will take a political earthquake to defeat the Byrd machine, but that if it wasn't for Secretary Benson's failure to act on drought relief and the dropping popularity of the White House, an earthquake might take place in Virginia next week.

WASHINGTON PIPELINE

When New Mexico's Sen. Dennis Chavez recently journeyed to Alaska he resented to buy something "extra special" for his wife. Finally the senator consulted his handbook and settled on his "extra special" gift — a twelve-pound Alaska cabbage. . . . The three atomic-energy plants at Oak Ridge, Tenn., Paducah, Ky., and Portsmouth, Ohio, use between 45 and 50 billion kilowatt-hours of electricity each year. That's equal to half as much power as the entire nation used less than 20 years ago. . . . Every time the Atomic Energy Commission knocks one-tenth of a cent off the kilowatt-hour from its electric bill the taxpayers save between 45 and 50 million dollars. . . . Lovely Louise Steinman Ansberry, daughter of the Lancaster, Pa., publisher, is taking up residence in Pittsburgh with a view to running for Congress some day. Louise got her political baptism as secretary to Pennsylvania's Sen. Jim Duff. . . . A THOUGHT FOR THE SABBATH

Stories Of Famous Hymns

In Heavenly Love Abiding

In heavenly love abiding,
No change my heart shall fear;
And save is much confiding,
For nothing changes here.
The storm may roar without me,
My heart may low be laid,
But God is 'round about me,
And can I be dismayed?

Wherever He may guide me,
No want shall turn me back;
My Shepherd is beside me,
And nothing can I lack.
His wisdom ever waketh,
His sight is never dim,
He knows the way He taketh,
And I will walk with Him.

Green pastures are before me,
Which yet I have not seen;
Bright skies will soon be o'er me,
Where darkest clouds have been.
My hope I cannot measure,
My path to life is free,
My Savior has my treasure,
And He will walk with me.

By HORACE B. POWELL

Anna Laetitia Waring, a young Welsh girl, used the fourth verse in the famous Twenty-third Psalm as a basis for her hymn, "In Heavenly Love Abiding," to which she wrote it about 1850 she gave the title "Safety In God."

The rich spiritual note that runs through the song is typical of that to be found in all of her hymn-poems. Her ancestors must have been Bible lovers before her, for her father was named Elijah after the great Bible prophet and her uncle, Samuel Saring, was known for his religious poems and songs.

Miss Waring was born at Neath, in southern Wales, in 1820. In later life she lived at Clifton, near Bristol, England. Her best writings, 32 pieces in all, were published in London in 1853 in a volume known as "Hymns And Meditations."

The music to which Miss Waring's hymn, cited above, is usually sung was written by James William Elliott, English composer, organist and choir-master, who served for a good while as organist and director of music in St. Mark's Church in London. The tune is popularly known in church musical circles as "Day Of Rest" because it was written originally for Bishop Christopher Wordsworth's hymn, "O Day Of Rest And Gladness."

American Art Week

Red Cloud, Neb.

To the editor of The Lincoln Star: November 1-7 has been proclaimed American Art Week. The week will be celebrated in countries all over the free world. Each community has its own natural art, its scenic beauty, its architecture. He who lives with art lives with greatness and he who creates, as does the artist, becomes one with the Creator.

One should visit museums, attend art exhibits, hold craft shows and encourage the amateurs in one's community. American Art Week is to honor American art and American artists. It is a time for sharing.

To the editor of The Lincoln Star: We should like to call attention to the following statement released by the student council of Lincoln High School to the student body through the Advocate:

"The members of the student council of Lincoln High School have, for a number of years, attempted by precept and example to eliminate from the celebration of Halloween any activities that are not in the best public interest. The present student council feels that these efforts have been effective. The celebration of Halloween so far as the high school pupils of Lincoln are concerned has become the occasion for small parties in private homes, with normal precautions for safety in effect. We again wish to go on record as favoring that type of celebration and we urge all pupils of Lincoln High School to join with us in a resolution to refrain from any Halloween activity which destroys property, either public or private, or endangers the safety of any person."

"Since the practice of knocking at doors and asking for hand-saws when engaged in by teenagers, we suggest that high school pupils leave such behavior to the very small children in our community."

"This public statement on our attitude toward the observance of Halloween is made by the student council of Lincoln High School in the hope that all pupils of the school will co-operate in helping to make the observance of Halloween an occasion for demonstrating to the citizens of Lincoln our own good citizenship."

Beyond Beans

Hastings, Neb.

To the editor of The Lincoln Star: I have received a letter which reads, in part: "I want to make a few personal observations about social security. It is here to stay. My objective is to improve it. No individual in my district or in any other congressman's district will have the benefit he is now receiving taken away or cut."

Who wrote that? Congressman Carl T. Curtis. That ought to settle the question as to what our congressman is doing. He can do nothing better than to do away with state assistance and give the old folks of the nation an outright pension. They are not responsible for being on relief while all about them other men have their social security benefits. They lived and worked without such benefits to which they might have contributed, and it isn't their fault.

There are 10 million on assistance rolls, possessed of a mighty consuming power once they are provided a worthwhile purchasing power. Likewise those on social security drawing $70 a month which means only rent, clothing and beans. Put them all together and give them $100 a month, sliding the scale down to include those 60 years old, and watch them begin to make surplus beef cuts disappear instead of the beef soup, plus beans. Give them a chance to buy consumer goods, pay good rentals in modern homes, giving their jobs over to the younger generation, and then watch our national economy thrive.

How finance this? With an income tax of 2 per cent upon all incomes above $3,500 and give the middle class of this country as well as the low-income an opportunity to provide for their own old age security.

With the many important bills that faced the last session making it the longest on record, it was agreed that no attempt be made at redistricting and that the problem be considered at a later session after more time could be given for study.

It was interesting to observe that the failure of the Legislature to act was inspired by senators representing areas that would have benefited by additional representation and not by those who probably would have lost their seats in any reorganization plan adopted on the required population basis.

On the basis of the Wisconsin Supreme Court ruling, it appears probable that the state will have to redistrict and consider shifts of population since it was organized on the basis of population in 1930.

Deaver retired first in 1949 as a teacher at Omaha's South High School. But since then he's added three more years to his experience rating—two years as superintendent at Seneca and one at Petersburg.

"I guess I'm through for good now," Deaver said. "But when this meeting came up, I couldn't resist putting in an appearance."

Deaver, who came here with his wife, said "They've really got a topnotch bunch of speakers this year. I've gotten a lot out of it."

Some U.N. Delegates Take Neutral Stand On Atrocities Charge

Fear Expressed That Claims May Jeopardize Korea Peace

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP)—Some Asian and Arab delegates took a neutral hands-off stand Friday on United States charges that Reds in Korea committed atrocities against American and other Allied captives. They also expressed fear the charges might jeopardize the Korean peace conference.

A British spokesman expressed horror over the reported atrocities and said his delegation would consult as early as possible with the United States on tactics for debate on them in the U.N. Assembly. Britain is expected to back the American demand for a hearing but the British were not consulted before the U.S. acted here.

The Asian and Arab delegates who talked about the atrocities charges would not permit identification. They expressed their horror also at the evidence but made it clear they would sit on the fence when the case comes up in the political committee for action.

They explained that they believe the United States showed poor timing in putting the atrocity charges up in the United Nations while Arthur H. Dean, United States representative at Panmunjom, is trying to work out details of the Korean peace conference.

They said the atrocities probe could have been left to a later time when there was more possibility of investigating them or when the peace conference was not such an important immediate issue.

American delegate Henry Cabot Lodge Jr. began working up his case for presentation to the U.N. delegates. He and other Americans did not appear to feel that the atrocity case would bring on a new debate on the Korean conflict or would jeopardize the proposed peace conference.

American sources said they did not believe the Communists would let debate on reported atrocities stop them if they really wanted a conference.

Lodge sent a letter Friday to Dag Hammarskjold, U.N. secretary-general, formally requesting that the atrocities item be put on the assembly agenda. The request will be debated probably Monday by the Steering Committee, which must discuss such new business, and the assembly will be asked next week to decide whether to take up the new item at this time.

Recording Of Ceremonies Presented

Mayor Clark Jeary visited the State Historical Society's new building Friday morning to present a tape recording of the dedicatory ceremonies held at the opening of the building Sept. 27. The presentation was made in behalf of radio station KLMS, which made the recording. Shown are: James E. Lawrence, president of the society; Mrs. Carolyn Smith of KLMS and Mayor Jeary.

Court Sets Aside Contempt Charge

The State Supreme Court ruled Friday that Roy Rice, an insurance adjuster, was entitled to protect himself from an illegal inquisition in a truck accident case he had investigated.

The Douglas County District Court fined Rice one dollar for contempt in a case growing out of an accident at Nebraska City. Rice contended Douglas County District Judge Carroll O. Stauffer acted without legal authority in requiring him to answer questions on matters not within his personal knowledge.

The Supreme Court ordered the contempt proceedings dismissed. Other cases included:

First County: Unfiled district court denial of workman's compensation death benefits to Margaret H. Scott, widow of Ed Scott, who was employed by localities Implement Co. of Atkinson.

First County: Reversed district court order discharging Commercial National Bank of Grand Island from liability in action of Maudie and Harold G. Strauss to recover death to certain real estate in Hall County.

Aandahl Clarifies Priorities

WASHINGTON (AP) — Assistant Secretary of the Interior Fred G. Aandahl said Friday firm electric power in the Missouri River basin will be reserved "for preference customers insofar as they need it."

Aandahl made public a memorandum to Reclamation Commissioner W. A. Dexheimer explaining Missouri Basin power marketing guides issued last month.

The marketing guides were broken down into standards for the western Missouri Basin area, where 140,750 kilowatts of generating capacity is expected by 1955, and the eastern area, in which 1,295,000 kilowatts of capacity is expected between now and about 1960.

The Reclamation Bureau on Oct. 1 asked for applications by Jan. 1 for about 115,000 kilowatts of power expected to become available in the western division by early next year and for 210,000 kilowatts expected to be available in the eastern division by some time in 1956. It said first sale will be given public bodies and co-operatives. Any remaining power will be available on equal terms to non-preference customers, Aandahl said.

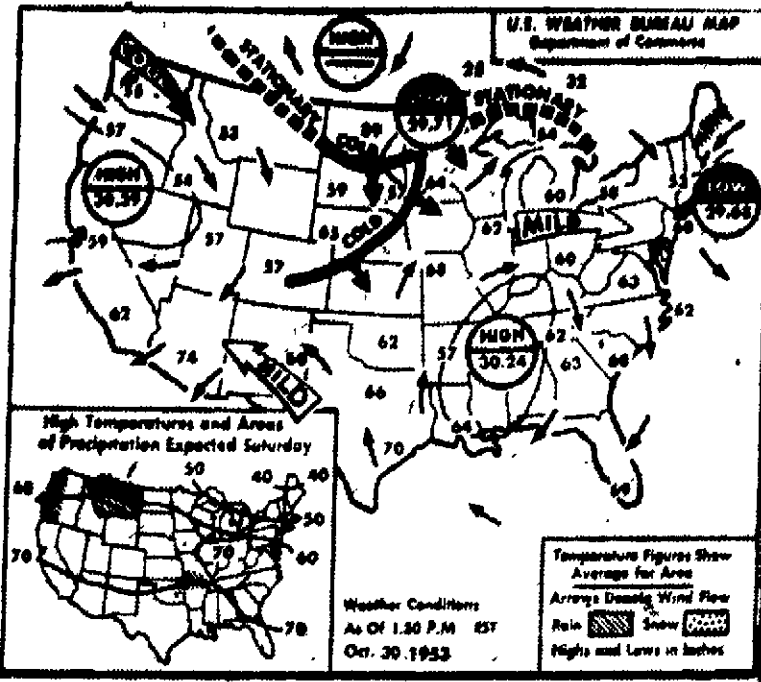

Preference customers are public bodies such as municipalities and rural electric co-operatives, which under law are granted a priority on Federal power. Aandahl said that in sale of Missouri Basin power "we will very carefully check on sales to preference customers, including a study of their needs under reasonable growth" and that it might take months in some cases to work out all contract details.

McCook Girl Missing For Five Weeks

MCCOOK, Neb. (Lincoln Star Special)—The search for a 17-year-old high school girl who disappeared from her home here, has entered its sixth week and authorities admit they have no concrete leads yet.

Janet Shepherd, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Shepherd of McCook, was last seen here when she left her home one evening to mail a letter and failed to return.

Her parents said she was wearing no heavy clothing when she left home and had little money with her. They have received no communication of any kind from their daughter.

Reported In South
Red Willow County Sheriff Jim Short, whose office is leading the attempt to locate the Shepherd girl, said Friday that the only indications of what direction she might have taken from McCook point south.

Sheriff Short said the girl was reported in Colby, Kan., Gainesville, Tex., and in New Mexico. He has notified police and patrol units in those states and in Oklahoma. Descriptions of the girl have been sent throughout the country.

County Attorney Fred T. Hanson of McCook said Friday that the case is a "complete mystery." So far there have been no indications of foul play and no charges are being prepared in connection with the disappearance, Hanson said.

Help for dry hair

BY CAROL DOUGLAS

Are you unhappy with your hair because it is dry and brittle? Now there is an easy way to make dry hair softer, easier to manage, prettier in every way. Just use Tame, the new invisible hair-dressing.

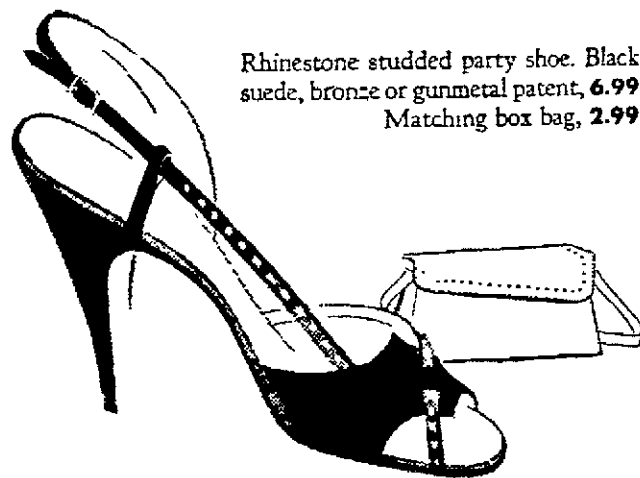

Tame conditions your hair in a wonderful new way. You don't spray it on. You don't smear it on. You rinse it on. And that makes a marvelous difference. Every dry, brittle strand is completely and evenly covered with a delicate, transparent solution that's like nature's own oils. Yet, it never leaves your hair greasy or stiff. Tame makes dry, frizzy hair silkier, easier to arrange. It gives dull, lifeless-looking hair a healthy shine.

Use Tame after every shampoo and home permanent, too. You'll find Tame at your favorite toiletries counter in 30c, 60c, and $1.00 sizes plus Fed tax. No matter how dry your hair is right now, it can be lovelier than you have thought possible.

A Problem Or Two

THIS IS our morning for problems—The first one is—where shall we start on the deluge of news? The second, and perhaps more intricate matter is how, when we once begin, are we going to stop? Maybe we'd just better stop pondering and get down to business—

The football week-end guests still are pouring in—Just heard that Mr. and Mrs. Roderick Fletcher (A. N. Miles) have come from St. Joseph, Mo., to spend the week-end as the guests of Mrs. Fletcher's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John M. Miles—

AND ALSO heard that Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Weaver will include numerous out of town guests when they entertain at an 11:30 o'clock luncheon today at their home—The out-of-town guests will be Mr. and Mrs. Charles Simm and Mr. and Mrs. Al Flander, Clarinda, Ia.; Mr. and Mrs. John Cooper, Humboldt; and Mr. and Mrs. Webb Woodward of Topeka, Kan.

Mr. and Mrs. Weaver have invited 30 guests for the pregame affair.

UNDERSTAND that Cadet Fred Ferris, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walton C. Ferris, is home from St. John's Military Academy for the week-end—and that he was accompanied by the headmaster at St. John's, Colonel Remy Clem, and Mrs. Clem.

COMING from Omaha today for the game and considerable festivity will be Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hoff who are, as you may remember, former Lincoln residents. Preceding the game Mr. and Mrs. Hoff will be guests at a luncheon for which Mr. and Mrs. Arthur E. Perry will be host and hostess at their home—and following the game Mr. and Mrs. Emmett Gillaspie will honor the visitors when they entertain at a buffet supper at their home—Included in the guest list, in addition to Mr. and Mrs. Hoff, will be Mr. and Mrs. Perry and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Evans.

THERE ALSO will be out of town guests galore at the Holiday club dinner dance at Hotel Cornhusker this evening—Out-of-town guests at the party will include Mr. and Mrs. Robert Long, Mr. and Mrs. Miller Nichols and Mr. and Mrs. Willis Heron, all of Kansas City, and all guests of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Olson; Mr. and Mrs. Noyes Rogers, Columbus; Mr. and Mrs. Carl Junge, North Platte; James Pickering, Scarsdale, N. Y.; Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Kreizinger, Pullman, Wash.; and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wright of Philadelphia, Pa. Lincoln guests at the party will be Mr. and Mrs. Wheaton Battey, Dr. and Mrs. P. M. Bancroft, and Mr. and Mrs. Wardner Scott.

FROM FALLS CITY for the gala week end has come Mrs. W. W. Windle, who is the house guest of Mr. and Mrs. George G. Swingle.

All Ready For A Big Week-End

We suspect that the members of the eightsome arriving from McPherson, Kans., on Friday afternoon are hoping that KU will win over Nebraska today—but we doubt very much if the outcome will hamper the big week end in store for the visitors who are to be the house guests of Mr. and Mrs. Fred S. Sidles. Twin planes—their own—brought the group from McPherson to Lincoln, and after passengers' and luggage were all safe and sound on the ground, the group graciously posed for a picture—

Wedding At High Noon Today

MISS SANDRA RIDDELL whose marriage to Lieut. (jg) Robert E. Berggren will be solemnized at a high noon ceremony.

With only the immediate members of the families and a small group of close friends attending the ceremony, the marriage of Miss Sandra Riddell, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Ted E. Riddell of Scottsbluff, to Lieut. (jg) Robert E. Berggren, son of Mrs. Harry Berggren, of Scottsbluff, and the late Mr. Berggren, will be solemnized at high noon today at St. Andrews Church, Episcopal, in Scottsbluff.

The Rev. Clyde Whitney, rector of St. Andrews, will read the service before a background of gold and bronze chrysanthemums and fans of Hawaiian tea leaves. The blossoms and greenery form the altar decor and, with lighted candles in seven-branched holders, will appoint the chancel. Preceding the service the bridegroom's brother, Jack Berggren of Aberdeen, S.D., will sing "Wedding Prayer."

As the matron of honor and only attendant, Mrs. Donald Bradley of Cedar Rapids, Ia., will be frocked in pale green silk taffeta. Above the full, waltz-length skirt the fitted bodice is ornamented with seed pearls and sequins. Mrs. Bradley will complete her costume with a frock-toned contour hat, jewel trimmed, and she will carry a cascade bouquet of bronze chrysanthemums.

Jerry Berggren will serve his brother as best man, and the ushers will include Donald

Members of the Red Cross entertainment and supply committee sponsored a Halloween party for patients at the Veterans Hospital this week. Following a program of games, one of the patients, "General" H. P. Parker of Lincoln, was crowned "King of Spooks." In charge of arrangements for the evening were Mrs. Richard Smith, chairman, assisted by Mrs. Harry Meginnis, Mrs. Sid Bradley, Miss Mary Maguire, Mrs. John Angle, Miss Kay Kinsey and Mrs. James Edece.

The committee also was in charge of decorations for the annual Halloween Carnival held at the hospital and sponsored by ten civic groups in Lincoln. Mrs. Smith, chairman, was assisted by Mrs. Angle, Miss Maguire and Mrs. George Day. Red Cross hospital representative for the county.

At the Lincoln State Hospital, Red Cross Grey Ladies gave a party for all patients who celebrated birthday anniversaries in October. Mrs. Walter J. Mitchell, chairman, was assisted by Mrs. Wheaton Battey, Mrs. William Becker,

Bride At Evening Wedding

Costumed identically in garnet net over taffeta were the bridesmaids, Miss Marilyn Reinick, also a sister of the bride, and Miss Donna Rae Maul. The attendants carried bouquets of chrysanthemums in shades to contrast with their frocks, and wore tiaras of the blossoms in their hair. Miss Roni Lee Cheever, in green net over taffeta, was the flower girl, and ringbearer was Alan Cheever.

Larry Trippel served Mr. Blauser as best man, and the ushers were James Sinamark and Alfred Broadstone.

White satin and Chantilly-type lace was chosen by the bride for her wedding gown. A mandarin collar accented the neckline of the molded lace bodice, and the sleeves were long and fitted. Panels of the lace formed the trim of the flaring skirt, which tapered into a train, and her veil of silk illusion was held by a lace Mary Queen of Scots, brim edged with seed pearls. She carried a white prayer

CLIPPINGS

Look at one lovely woman. One of the first features that you will notice about her is her hair. And, as you know, it takes a good basic hair cut to keep hair looking at its very best (especially if you take care of your own hair).

That's why Maison Lorenzo's staff is thoroughly trained in the art of hair cutting. Each is a professional who will shape your hair expertly in the style that you prefer. Whether you wear your hair long or short, curled or smooth, or in the new Italian brush cut, they are able to cut it in a flattering manner. One that will be easy for you to care for yourself.

They will also be happy to make suggestions for the proper care and management of your hair at home. And, if you like, they will offer suggestions for a becoming new style. Right now, when you want a hair style that will be smart for fall is the time to come in. We invite you to come in for a consultation at no extra cost. Haircuts start at 1.25. NU Has 6,770 Students; First Gain Since '48

A total of 6,770 students are attending classes at the University of Nebraska—marking the first gain in enrollment at the school since 1948, Dr. George W. Rosenlof, dean of admissions, said.

The number of new freshmen—1,574, or 113 more than last year—is the largest since 1948 and was responsible for reversing the downward trend of enrollments.

Dr. Rosenlof said that although the number of women students is up slightly, the number is still below the pre-World War II level of 1939 when coeds made up nearly 35 per cent of the University population. This year 2,001 women students, or 29.55 per cent of the total enrollment, are registered, compared with 1,927 last year, or 28.82 per cent.

550 Korean Veterans
The University's student-veteran population is about 785, including an estimated 550 Korean veterans. But Dr. Rosenlof cautioned that both of these figures may be low. Under present federal procedures the University has no certain way of knowing promptly how many of its students are Korean veterans.

Despite an 18 per cent gain in the number of applications for admissions, the net gain in new students—2,076—over last year is a little under 5 per cent. Dr. Rosenlof said that this, coupled with a decline in upper-class registrations, may indicate that Nebraska's late summer drought may have wiped out some of the anticipated increases.

Registration includes students from every state except Alabama. The states South Carolina and West Virginia. Not including Nebraska, the states with the most students are Iowa, 362; South Dakota, 341; and Kansas, 337. Forty-two of these students are also registered at other schools. The first year class with 2,076 students is a record in enrollment over last year and is the largest administered by the University since 1939.

Zoning Board OKs Two Applications

The City Zoning Board of Appeals granted two of the six applications for changes in zoning brought before it.

Approval was given on the application of Ray L. Bartlett for a change from residence A to local business at the northeast corner of 10th and Van Dorn to allow erection of a service station.

Also approved was the application of Henry H. and Irmgard Honnens for a change from residence to local business between 27th and 28th from Alpha to D to allow erection of a four unit home court.

Denied by the board was the protested application of Amy M. Howard for a change from residence A to local business at 3001 No. 48th to allow operation of a beauty shop and radio and TV repair shop. Other action by the board.

Laid over at the applicant's request a change from residence A to local business at 1143 No. 28th sought by Albert B. Covey.

Laid over at the applicant's request a change from residence A to local business at 1123 No. 28th sought by John Wesley Lampshire.

Denied the request of W. P. Keys for a change in zoning from residence B to local business at 708 No. 22nd.

Damage Discussed

Insurance adjusters of the company carrying insurance for Watson Bros., Omaha, who were carrying a truckload of ammunition which exploded near Ax-tell, conferred with the highway department on the state loss to highways in the explosion.

Repair of the hole 15 feet deep and 52 feet in diameter is estimated by highway department officials to cost in the neighborhood of $2,500.

Mitchell Resignation OK'd In Curt Letter From Ike

WASHINGTON (AP)—In a letter bordering on the curt, President Eisenhower Friday accepted the resignation of William D. Mitchell as administrator of the Small Business Administration "effective immediately."

Mitchell, former Denver lawyer and businessman, said he quit for "purely personal reasons" and not because of any disagreements with the President or other administration officials.

"The job as I have been pursuing it has made such a demand on my time and energy that I thought it best to resign," he told a reporter.

"Everything is on a very amicable plane," he added. "I have the greatest confidence in and love for the President of the United States."

Mitchell, who became 41 on Oct. 20, said he was thinking of going into private law practice here.

In resigning from the post to which he was appointed only last June 8, Mitchell wrote the President:

"I deeply regret that, due to personal reasons, I find that I must resign as administrator of the Small Business Administration."

"For the opportunity I have had to serve in your administration, I am truly appreciative. I wish you continued success in your program in the period that lies ahead."

Eisenhower replied: "Dear Mr. Mitchell: 'I have your letter tendering your resignation as administrator of the Small Business Administration. I accept your resignation effective immediately.'"

Omitted were the usual thanks for services rendered. James C. Hagerly, the President's press secretary, said he had no explanation for Mitchell's abrupt departure other than the "personal reasons" cited.

The agency Mitchell headed was known as the Small Defense Plants Administration when he took it over. It was set up early in the Korean mobilization program to help small business firms share in defense orders.

Paul Small's Writ Of Habeas Corpus Plea Is Denied

Federal District Judge John W. Delehant has ruled that Nebraska Penitentiary Inmate Paul R. Small has not exhausted remedies in state court procedure in denying Small's petition for a habeas corpus writ.

The petitioner has not exhausted the Nebraska Supreme Court ruling denying review of case "for want of briefs" on Oct. 10, 1953, upon a writ of certiorari to the U. S. Supreme Court.

Small, who was sentenced for forgery in Feb. 1948, from Douglas County, contends his seven-year sentence was commuted to a minimum term expiring March 12, 1952, and was placed on parole also as to an additional one year sentence for escape.

He was returned to the Penitentiary on April 4, 1952, for violation of parole. But Small contends his confinement should have ended March 11, 1953.

$21,784 Damage Claim Dismissed After Trial

Lancaster District Judge Harry Spencer has dismissed the $21,784 automobile accident suit brought by Lars Hanson against Ralph A. and Carol Masters following the conclusion of the evidence during a jury trial.

The jury was discharged from further service in the case after Judge Spencer sustained motions dismissing the plaintiff's petition and the defendant's counterclaim of $45 property damage.

Hanson had contended a cause of the accident was the defendant's automobile which was parked on the south side of Hol-drege between 30th and 31st, which had been posted for "No Parking This Side of the Street."

Wildcats Are Underdogs In Big Conference Tilt

Lincoln Star Special
NORMAN, Okla. — Oklahoma will face the most rejuvenated football team in America Saturday at Manhattan, Kan., when Coach Bud Wilkinson's Sooners meet Kansas State.

Kickoff is at 2 p.m. at Ahern Field. Kansas State leads the Big Seven at 3-0 while Oklahoma stands 2-0. The two teams have met only one common opponent, Colorado. Kansas State, which defeated the Buffs 28-14 but one week later, Oklahoma had to break a 51-yard touchdown play in the final 40 seconds to escape a 20-20 tie with the Buffs.

"Kansas State is a real, good football team, make no mistake about it," says Pete Elliott, Sooners scout.

Elliott says the Wildcats have a tremendous threat in any one of four half-backs, Veryl Switzer, Corky Taylor, Gerald Cashman and Bernie Dudley, who have scored 13 touchdowns already this year, and a sound, fast line plenty capable of breaking them loose either wide or on the hand-off for a long touchdown.

Elliott also said that Oklahoma must carefully watch Quarterback Bob Dahnke's keeper. Dahnke zoomed 53 yards to a touchdown off it against Colorado. "He is very fast and good," Pete says. Both Dahnke and Bob Whitehead, the other Purple quarterback, are good passers. Between them, they have pegged five touchdowns this season. He also had praise for Fullbacks Bob Balderston and Doug Roether. Elliott liked the whole Wildcat line, singling out Left End Pence and Guard Tom O'Boyle as real team leaders. Kansas State returned 17 lettered linemen from last year to Oklahoma's 10 and possesses much experienced depth up front.

Oklahoma lost three All-Americans out of its great backfield of last year, Billy Vessels, Buck McPhail and Eddie Crowder, and with injuries removing Jack Ging and Tom Carroll besides, has placed lots of dependence this year in two light, fast lines.

Spirit and speed have kept Oklahoma going this fall. However, the squad took such a physical beating from Colorado last week that many of the players can't practice at full steam this week.

Oklahoma was flown by chartered plane to Topeka, Kan., arriving at 1:30 p.m. Friday, staying at the Kansas Hotel and practicing at 2:15 p.m. Friday at the Washburn University field. The trip to and from Manhattan will be made by chartered bus. The game is the 30th annual clash between the two schools.

Kansas State's first points against Oklahoma were made on a field goal by Bates in 1908 at Manhattan. Oklahoma's first touchdown, also scored in the original 1908 game, came on a forward pass to an eligible tackle on the end of the line. The late Fred Capshaw threw it and the late Willard Douglas caught it.

New Officers Are Named By Coaches

District I of the Nebraska Coaches Association elected new officers at a meeting held Thursday afternoon at the YMCA.

Dale Snook presided at the meeting which found Pete Bertman of Fairbury elected to the presidency and Harry Kuklin of Lincoln named as new secretary. Rex Lutz of Beatrice was elected treasurer.

Mike Milligan, University of Nebraska line coach, was the principal speaker, and Kansas University's head basketball mentor, Phog Allen, was an honored guest.

Panorama TV Grid Plan Out

DETROIT (AP) — General Motors announced Friday night it was dropping a scheduled Nov. 7 "panorama" football telecast in favor of televising three separate regional games and one local contest.

GM spokesmen said that the NCAA television committee had approved the new scheme to replace the ill-received "panorama" type telecast in which viewers saw snapshots of several games.

Instead, GM's "game of the week" will present four separate games over NBC stations, with each of three regions and one nationally receiving different, complete games.

The Florida-Georgia game starting at 1:15 p.m. CST will be seen over NBC-TV stations in Maryland, Washington, D. C., Virginia, North Carolina, Kentucky, Tennessee, Arkansas, Mississippi, Louisiana, Alabama, and Florida.

The Kansas-Kansas State game at Lawrence, Kan., starting at 1:45 p.m. CST, will be seen over stations in Kansas, Missouri, Oklahoma, Texas, Colorado, Nebraska, Utah, Arizona, California, Oregon, and Washington.

The Northwestern-Wisconsin game at Evanston, Ill., starting at 1:15 p.m. CST will be seen over all other stations of the NBC-TV network with one exception.

That exception will be the South Carolina-North Carolina game starting at 12:45 p.m. CST, which will be televised locally at Columbia, S.C., the game site. GM spokesmen said that limited cable facilities prevent wider coverage of the contest.

Marquette Scores Win Over Boston

BOSTON (AP) — Bob Girmann, a hard-driving fullback replacement, raced 41 yards for a touchdown and, given a second try because of a penalty, Don Molenda, converted the point that gave Marquette a 7-6 victory over a hard fighting but luckless Boston University football team Friday night on soggy Braves Field.

Boston University, after being held for downs on Marquette's 12 in the first period, was stung into effective action after Girmann broke through the right side of his line for his second period touchdown.

With four minutes left, Linebacker Ed Jarosz recovered Boston's fumble on Boston's 40. From there Dick Shockey, the 6-3 quarterback, finally got Marquette's aerial attack going. He completed four consecutive passes, the last of which traveled 13 yards to winger Ed Braatz on the 1.

Givens Named To NAIA Committee

CRETE—Aub Givens, Doane College director of athletics, has been named as a member of the Aims and Objectives Committee of the National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics.

Givens, chairman of District II, is one of ten members on the national committee. The committee's primary function will be to make recommendations and suggest studies or surveys for future direction of the NAIA, in addition to acting in a general advisory capacity.

Colleges other than Doane represented on the NAIA committee are: Wisconsin State Teachers, Eau Claire, Wisconsin; W. Washington College, Bellingham, Washington; Southwest Texas State, San Marcos, Texas; Wm. Jewell College, Liberty, Missouri; Milliken University, Decatur, Illinois; Hanover College, Hanover, Indiana; Elon College, Elon, North Carolina; Fairleigh Dickinson College, Rutherford, New Jersey; and Virginia State College, Petersburg, Virginia.

Plainsmen Seek Victory Over Old Rival Hastings

One of the state's oldest football rivalries will be resumed Saturday night when Nebraska Wesleyan and Hastings College collide.

The game—a Hastings homecoming spectacle—will mark the 39th meeting between teams from the two schools in an ancient series dating back to 1908.

The two clubs—Hastings coached by Tom McLaughlin and Wesleyan by Roy Robertson—were considered definite Nebraska College Conference upper division threats when the 1953 season was launched.

But this Saturday will find the two outfits—each a disappointment to home fans—battling to stay in the race for a top division spot and each well out of the championship scene.

Hastings opened the conference season, by holding powerful Peru State to a 20-27 loss. Then the Broncos fell apart, losing to Kearney and Midland and winning from winless Chadron in their next three loop starts.

The Plainsmen opened conference games by clipping Chadron. Since that time they have lost to Wayne and Peru and tied with Kearney and Doane. Percentage-wise, each team is battling 400.

Hastings with more depth and playing before a partisan homecoming crowd, should rate the nod tonight over Robertson's crippled Plainsmen. The two schools have taken turns battling one another in the home and home series over a period of years.

Cadets Invade Tulane Today

NEW ORLEANS (AP)—Army's offense-minded Cadets, kingpins among Eastern football powers this season, swing into the deep South today to meet battered and bewildered Tulane.

The once-beaten Army team, the best since the wartime teams of Glenn Davis and Doc Blanchard, will be meeting a Tulane squad that has salvaged only one game in six starts.

Army Coach Earl Blaik's squad is a well-balanced team, ranking seventh nationally in total offense and 12th in forward passing.

Key man in the Army attack is Quarterback Pete Vann, a deadly passer whose record in five games shows 32 completions in 58 attempts for 471 yards and seven touchdowns.

Vann has spearheaded Army victories over Furman, Dartmouth, Duke and Columbia. Inconsistent Northwestern handed the Cadets their only defeat.

Tulane, last-place occupant in the 12-member Southeastern Conference, has fared far less successfully against six opponents, winning a 54-6 decision over The Citadel in the season opener and then dropping straight decisions to Georgia, Michigan, Georgia Tech, Mississippi and Auburn.

The five consecutive losses mark Tulane's worst showing in 43 years.

Sam Houston Wins

TAMPA, Fla. (AP)—Mac Moore, a little All-America halfback candidate, ran wild Friday night to lead Sam Houston State to a 26-6 victory over the University of Tampa.

Moore scored one touchdown, was the big gun in two others, did his share in setting up the fourth, intercepted a pass at a key moment and kicked one extra point.

Marciano May Defend Against Cockell

PARIS (AP)—Rocky Marciano will defend his heavyweight title against Don Cockell, the British champion, next June—maybe.

Al Weill, Marciano's manager, said Friday the bout would be held in London or the United States "wherever we could get the most money." He made his announcement after a one-hour talk with Jack Solomons, British promoter.

Then came the maybe. "No final decision on the matter will be taken," said Weill, "until I talk with Jim Norris (president of the International Boxing Club) next week at New York."

Weill, scheduled to fly to New York Monday, said he would cable Norris' opinion of the match to Solomons as soon as he talked with the American promoter.

"The whole affair is being handled by the three of us in the most friendly fashion," Weill added.

Weill didn't know it but he won't be able to talk to Norris in New York next week. From New York came word Thursday that Norris had gone to Florida for a rest. In his absence, Harry Markson, managing director of the IBC, is in charge.

Questioned about the proposed match, Markson, in New York, said, "When Weill returns and Norris returns, they will sit down and discuss Marciano's future matches. Cockell certainly will be discussed. As the British champion he is in the running."

Norris had hoped to interest Weill in having Marciano defend his title in February, possibly in Miami. Danny Baccarelli, Edward Charles and Nino Valdes have been mentioned as possible opponents in addition to Cockell.

Under the commission rules requiring a defense every six months, Marciano would have to put the title on the line by March 24.

Robert Christenberry, chairman of the New York State Athletic Commission, said in New York there had been no discussion of a Marciano defense because he fought a month ago. "There has been no change in the six-month rule," he added.

Weill also said he was considering a European tour for Marciano early next year. If he decided to make such a tour, Gilbert Benaim, Paris boxing promoter, would handle the details.

Red Top Davis Beats Araujo

NEW YORK (AP)—Teddy (Red Top) Davis, always pursuing a fleeing target, won a unanimous decision over George Araujo Friday night in a dull 10-rounder that drew frequent warnings from Referee Ruby Goldstein and boos from the small crowd at Madison Square Garden.

Davis weighed 130½, Araujo 133½.

In round after round, Goldstein talked to the fighters saying, "Come on" and "You've got to fight." Once he told them, "Come on, you're lousing up the Garden."

Araujo, a newlywed from Providence, making his first Garden start since he was knocked out by Lightweight Champ Jimmy Carter in a title bout, kept moving away from Davis all the time.

Davis, who had beaten Araujo Sept. 10 in Boston for the New England lightweight crown, was defending it for the first time.

The 30-year-old Hartford, Conn., veteran of 100 previous fights pursued Araujo round after round, catching a sporadic counter fire.

Referee Goldstein took the sixth round away from Araujo for a low blow after warning him in the second.

Both Judge Bert Grand and Joe Epply scored the fight for Davis 6-4. Referee Goldstein had Davis on top 6-3-1.

Cathedral High Royalty

Queen Kay Krueger and King Rich Snyder parade for their subjects at Cathedral High School's homecoming Friday night. Seated in front of the queen is her attendant, Jean Donahue. Queen Kay, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Krueger, 618 Marshall, was selected from among 28 senior girls by secret ballot. King Rich is the son of Mrs. Nell Snyder, 6013 Havelock Ave., and Miss Donahue is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Donahue, 3020 Vine. Not shown is the King's attendant, Fred Schneider, son of Mr. Fred Schneider, 3551 J. Driver of the auto is not identified. (Star Photo.)

Jean Swanson Crowned Queen Of Lincoln High Homecoming

A seven-point halftime deficit failed to dampen the Lincoln High Homecoming spirit and the school crowned a queen in true coronation style.

With Lyle Welch's LHS band and the Peppers forming the background for a regal red and black throne, Miss Jean Swanson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leslie E. Swanson of 3941 C, assumed her royal duties.

Dick Cavett, president of the Student Council and son of Mr.

and Mrs. Alva B. Cavett of 1825 S, presented her majesty with a bouquet of red roses and bestowed the traditional kiss.

Queen Jean's court included Misses Margo DuTeau, Nancy Swanson, Karen Rauch, Barbara Brittain and Susy Delehant.

Over 75 former Lincoln football lettermen attended the game, with the oldest 'L' winner representing the 1900 team.

New Signal Planned

CHICAGO (AP) — The Big Ten Friday instructed its football officials to use a new signal for denoting a backfield in motion penalty to clarify confusion over "illegal procedure" infractions.

For a backfield in motion call the official will bring both hands to his chest with the palms down. Under the national code, the signal for both backs in motion and illegal movement by linemen is a spinning of both hands in front of the chest.

The Big Ten will recommend adoption of its new signal to the national rules committee.

Match Signed

TAMPA, Fla. (AP)—Baby Williams, Cuban light heavyweight titlist from Havana, and Irish Bob Murphy, Milwaukee, have signed for a 10-round re-match here Nov. 10.

U.S. Offers Help In Japan Defense Force Build Up

$50 Million Food Plan Disclosed

WASHINGTON (AP)—The State Department Friday night announced agreement with Japan on the need for rebuilding Japan's land, sea and air forces, and the United States offered to help with American military equipment.

It was also agreed that United States military forces in Japan would be withdrawn "as the Japanese forces develop the capability to defend their country."

However, the announcement left it up in the air just how fast, in fact, the Japanese defense forces will be built up and how soon the United States will withdraw.

Officials said the purpose of

Fair Trade Suit Rests On Court Ruling

Further Federal District Court action on the fair trade suit between Elgin National Watch Co. and Crescent Jewelers will probably await a Nebraska Supreme Court ruling on the constitutionality of the state's fair trade law.

Elgin Atty. L. R. Doyle and Crescent Atty. Joseph Ginsburg explained two pending Omaha cases will probably test the state law in the Supreme Court.

While the cases had been pending during the current Federal District Court jury panel, the parties reach an out-of-court settlement on Crescent's suit to recover damages allegedly sustained because of a Lancaster District Court restraining order which prevented the store from selling Elgin watches during the 1952 Christmas season.

This order was dissolved and Elgin dismissed its original suit seeking a permanent injunction against Crescent.

When Crescent's damage suit was filed in Federal Court, Elgin cross-petitioned for a permanent injunction under the fair trade law to prevent Crescent from selling Elgin watches at less than Elgin listed prices.

This cross-petition is still pending, but parties have apparently elected to await a State Supreme Court test.

Rev. Williamson To N.J. Church

The Rev. Gabriel G. Williamson, assistant pastor at First Presbyterian Church, has accepted a call to the pastorate of the Community Presbyterian Church of New Jersey.

The Rev. and Mrs. Williamson and their daughter, Margaret Anne, will leave Lincoln late this month. He will assume his new duties about Dec. 1.

Rev. Williamson Mr. Williamson came to the Lincoln church in October, 1950, as director of the educational program and youth activities. He previously served as pastor for the Presbyterian Church in Seward and Lansing, W. Va.

Under his direction, great advances have been made in organization, equipment and program for all church groups, Dr. C. Vin White, church pastor, said.

The New Jersey church is a new parish being developed under the building funds campaign of the Presbyterian Church.

Weather Ahead

Extended forecast for Nebraska: Temperatures will average slightly above normal over southeastern Nebraska to 5 to 10 above in the west; cooler Saturday with no major changes indicated thereafter. Normal maximum in the upper 50s; normal minimum ranges from the middle 20s in the west to the middle 30s in the east. Little or no precipitation is indicated.

the Japanese buildup would be to bolster the island nation's defenses against any communist aggression.

Meanwhile, the United States will strengthen the Japanese economy with a 50-million-dollar food program using surplus American farm products.

East Tensions

A joint announcement and the United States and Japan, culminating four weeks of discussion, agreed on the need for "increasing Japan's self-defense forces" in the light of Far East tensions.

Japan has lagged on rebuilding its military defenses during the post-war American occupation while some of its neighbors, notably Red China and Soviet Russia's Far East armies, have greatly increased in strength.

Japan's post-war constitution bans major rearmament, but Japanese officials said it will probably not be necessary to change the Constitution to carry out the understanding. They emphasized that while the Constitution forbids the development of "war potential," the new act is designed only for defense purposes.

The United States, Friday night's announcement said, "offered to assist Japan in developing the Japanese forces by supplying major items of military equipment for the land, sea and air forces which Japan raises."

In the bargaining talks between victor and vanquished in World War II, neither nation got all it wanted. It was reliably reported that the United States wanted Japan's present "national safety force" of 110,000 men expanded to 325,000 to 350,000 in the shortest possible time.

The Japanese, however, were said to have replied that they would be able to increase their ground force only to 180,000 men in the next three to five years unless they got big-scale American economic assistance to broaden the base for defense.

However, the Eisenhower administration was reportedly uninterested in economic assistance on such a scale.

Bid Opening Is Nov. 24

SUPERIOR, Neb. (AP)—The board of education announced that Nov. 24 has been set for the opening of bids on the construction of a $275,000 grade school here. The building will be built just east of the present school.

Union Postpones Phone Strike Vote

James R. West, union bargaining chairman, said a strike vote on the Lincoln Telephone and Telegraph Company's no-wage-increase proposal would not be conducted immediately.

"We will not take that step until all of the workers in the 22 county area have heard our full report of the negotiations. That will take at least two weeks. There is also the possibility that the company will invite a resumption of bargaining," West said.

Bargainers for the Communications Workers of America Tuesday broke off 30 days of negotiations when they said they had reached an impasse in their request for wage increases ranging from $2.50 to $4.50 per week. Approximately 1,200 workers were represented. Termination date for the present contract was set for Nov. 1.

Company officials expressed a reluctance to accept wage demands that would require a request for higher phone rates in a period they described as economically unsettled. They expressed a willingness to resume talks with the union.
